Children Books

Due to the floods, the local primary schools are collecting books to help restock libraries in schools that have lost everything. If you have books suitable for Kindergarten to Year 6 in good condition please drop them into Byron Public School or Bangalow Public School.

Knitting for the Homeless

With the weather getting cooler it is now time to start giving out the beanies, gloves, etc. Please bring them in to Sue Williams in St Paul's so they can be distributed around the shire.

Flood Effort

St Martin's hall was used during March and April by the 'Heal Mullum' group. Body work professionals including herbalists, massage therapists, osteopaths and chiropractors offered their services free of charge to community members impacted by the floods. In conjunction with 'Heal Mullum', the 'Garden of Vegan' donated individually packed meals for distribution. The meals not distributed from the hall were then donated on to the Neighbourhood Centre. The 120 meals restocked the empty freezer at the Centre. 12 pallets of water were also donated and were gratefully received by the Mullumbimby Public School for use at their Cross Country event.

Thank you to our Op Shops for their on-going support of the Flood Crisis.

ANZAC Day 2022

On ANZAC Day we recognise and commemorate the contribution of all those who have served Australia and New Zealand (including those who died) in time of war and in war like conflicts. We are so grateful for their sacrifice.

Rev Rosie participated in the Dawn Service at Brunswick Heads and marched with the CWA in the Bangalow ANZAC Day parade. Laura East represented the Parish at both the Dawn Service and the 11am Service in Mullumbimby.
