From Grahame

Where does the time go! It seems we have only just recovered from our Christmas cheer, and now Easter is upon us! Of course, the signs have been there for weeks, if not months with Hot Cross Buns and Easter Eggs everywhere we look. What's it all about! What's going on!

Well like many things Hot Cross Buns and Easter Eggs remind us of, and point toward something else, Jesus. For me the cross on the bun is all about how much God loves me and the hollow chocolate egg is a reminder of the resurrection of Jesus that I may share in through faith in him. But this is not all about me because everyone has the same opportunity, I have to know Jesus and receive the gift of God's great love. Sounds like something worth celebrating not just on a long weekend but every day!

I know there will be many buns and eggs consumed without giving Jesus a thought. But if just one person is reminded of the cross on which our Saviour died or the empty cave which testifies to his resurrection, then there will be much rejoicing in Heaven. You can read all about what happened that first Easter in the Bible in Luke beginning at Chapter 22. If you

With every Blessing
Grahame
