

St Thomas' turns 100!

St Thomas' Anglican Church in Brunswick Heads is celebrating a significant milestone this year, as it marks the centenary of its dedication. The church has been a central part of the community for a hundred years, and its history is closely tied to the development of the town itself.

The church was first established in 1923, after a group of local residents banded together to raise funds and build a place of worship. Over the years, St Thomas' Church has been a hub of community activity, hosting events and services that bring people together from all walks of life. It has been a place of solace in times of trouble and a source of joy in times of celebration.

To mark the occasion there will be a special service followed by a light lunch on Sunday 26th March commencing at 11am. This is an open invitation to the community to come and share in this historic event. Come along and reflect on the past, celebrate the present and look forward to the future.
