*A Christian presence in the community, living by faith,
known by love, sharing a voice of hope.*

From Mark

It was lovely to be a part of our Byron Anglicans worship last week, as we made 'holy noise' together. In our service at Bangalow, you may have noticed that during communion, there was a short piece of unaccompanied singing, which was not in English.

This type of worship is sometimes called "Taizé", after a community of Christians in a small town in France. The simple, repetitive nature of Taizé can sometimes be helpful in stilling our minds and helping us to focus our hearts on Jesus as we receive his body and blood.

The words come from the poem "Nada Te Turbe", found in the cell of St. Teresa of Avila, written in her own hand, in the 16th century. As part of our ongoing reflection on the unique contributions of women in our shared life, I hope these words nourish you this week as they continue to nourish me.

Grace and Peace,
Mark Thornton
Bangalow

Nada te turbe
nada te espante
Quien a Dios tiene, nada le falta.
Solo Dios basta.

Let nothing disturb you,
nothing frighten you,
Whoever has God lacks nothing.
God is enough.

World Day of Prayer

The Parish hosted World Day of Prayer in St Martin's Mullumbimby on Friday 1st March. We welcomed guests from the other churches in town and Archdeacon Tiffany Sparks spoke at the event.

To Make you Smile

Lent 5 B Sunday 17 March 2024

Jeremiah 31.31-34; Psalm 119.9-16; Hebrews 5.5-14; John 12.20-33

There are people today, like the Greeks of the Gospel passage, who wish to see Jesus, they don't want to see church wardens, parish councils, bishops, priests or deacons. Still Jesus relies on his followers, us, like he relied on Philip and Andrew to bring others to see him. One of the hallmarks of being a mature disciple, apart from being fed on solid food, skilled in righteousness and trained to distinguish good from evil, is our readiness to introduce others to Jesus.

God, help us to be mature disciples that show Jesus to others by our love, actions and speech.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Melanesia.

All through this day dear Lord, let me touch as many lives as possible for you, and every life I touch please bless by your Holy Spirit, whether through the words I speak, the prayer I breathe or the life I live; so shall your kingdom come on earth as in heaven. Amen.
