From Murray

Luke 19:1-10 tells the story of Zacchaeus, a tax collector in the city of Jericho. Zacchaeus was not well liked because tax collectors were often seen as dishonest and greedy. Yet, when Jesus came to Jericho, Zacchaeus was eager to see Him. Being short, he couldn't see over the crowd, so he climbed a sycamore tree. This simple act shows his determination and curiosity about Jesus.

What stands out in this story is how Jesus noticed Zacchaeus. Jesus called him by name and said He wanted to stay at his house. This surprised everyone, especially because Zacchaeus was not considered a good person by many. Jesus' decision to spend time with Zacchaeus shows that He doesn't judge people by their past or what others think of them. Instead, Jesus sees the heart and welcomes everyone who seeks Him. Zacchaeus' response to Jesus was life-changing. He promised to give half of his possessions to the poor and pay back anyone he had cheated four times over.

Meeting Jesus led him to repent and make things right. This story reminds us that it's never too late to change and that Jesus offers kindness and forgiveness to everyone, no matter their past. It's a lesson in acceptance, transformation, and hope for all who wish to start anew. You are invited to start anew each and every day of your lives.

Blessings
Murray

Church Army evangelist in Brewarrina NSW where he is fondly remembered to this day. Bishop Arthur co-wrote the Reconciliation Prayer for A Prayer Book for Australia with his wife Colleen.

Reconciliation

Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled with you and reconciled with each other.

You made us in your likeness,
you gave us your Son, Jesus Christ.

He has given us forgiveness from sin.

Lord God, bring us together as one,
different in culture, but given new life in Jesus Christ,
together as your body, your Church, your people.

Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled, healed, forgiven,
sharing you with others as you have called us to do.
In Jesus Christ, let us be together as one. Amen.

Eternal God,
neither death nor life can separate us from your love;
grant that we may serve you faithfully here on earth,
and grant that we may serve you faithfully here on earth, and in heaven rejoice with all saints
who ceaselessly proclaim your glory:
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen
